Mr. Turnage,

Will you share IHS Transmittal Notice 24-16? I looked it up and seem to have different information than what you're sharing.

Very Respectfully,

Subject: Re: Implementation of Revised Policy Review Cycle – Effective June 11, 2025

Mr. Pope,

I respectfully acknowledge your directive dated June 10, 2025, concerning the pause on updating policy expiration dates in PolicyStat.

I must document that this instruction conflicts with IHS Transmittal Notice 24-16 and IHM Part 1, Chapter 1, which mandate biennial policy reviews and prohibit reliance on expired directives.

Compliance with these federal standards is not discretionary, and failure to reflect accurate policy review status could expose the facility to regulatory findings, CMS noncompliance, or audit failures.

I am obligated under HHS OIG compliance guidance and the Federal Records Act to document this variance from established requirements.

Please advise if the CEO has formally suspended application of TN 24-16 or if this directive was reviewed by the appropriate compliance/legal authorities.

Respectfully,
Kevin D. Turnage, RN

Thank you Mr. Turnage,

I appreciate you bringing this up. We have discussed this some already amongst executive leadership and will discuss this as a leadership group to roll out a plan to comply with IHM changes and HQ directives. Do not make any changes independently regarding this. Decisions regarding this are made at the level of the CEO, per the IHM.

Subject: Implementation of Revised Policy Review Cycle – Effective June 11, 2025
Importance: High

Dear Executive Leadership Team,

Please find attached a memorandum outlining the upcoming implementation of a federally mandated change to our policy review cycle, as required under IHS Transmittal Notice 24-16 .

Effective immediately, all IHS facility directives—including PIMC policies and procedures—must undergo formal review every two years. Any directive exceeding that timeframe will be considered non-compliant. In alignment with this update, I will begin implementing necessary changes in PolicyStat starting June 11, 2025.

The attached memorandum outlines the background, compliance requirements, and the phased implementation plan. Please review and advise if there are any department-specific directives that require prioritization during this transition.

Should you have questions or require assistance initiating a review process, feel free to reach out directly.

Best regards,
Kevin D. Turnage
Policy Officer
