III. CONVERSION OF ELEMENTS TO SUMMARY RATING

After rating and assigning a score to each critical element: the rating official will total the points and divide that by the number critical elements to arrive at an average score (up to one decimal place). This score will be converted to a summary rating based on the following point values:

Total Point Value: 21 Divided by Number of Critical Elements: 6 = Average Score: 3.5

Average Score will be calculated up to 1 decimal place. This numerical score will then be converted to a Summary Rating, as follows:

Critical Element Ratings	Points Assigned
Level 5: Achieved Outstanding Results (AO)	4.50 to 5.00
Level 4: Achieved More than Expected Results (AM)	3.60 to 4.49
Level 3: Achieved Expected Results (AE)	3.00 to 3.59
Level 2: Partially Achieved Expected Results (PA)	2.00 to 2.99
Level 1: Achieved Unsatisfactory Results (UR)	1.00 to 1.99

This Summary Rating will be recorded on Page 1 of this form.

Exceptions to the mathematical formula:

If an employee receives Partially Achieved Expected Results (PA) on one or more critical elements regardless of the average point score, he/she cannot receive a summary rating higher than Achieved Expected Results (AE). A summary rating of Achieved Unsatisfactory Results (UR) must be assigned to any employee who is rated Achieved Unsatisfactory Results (UR) on any critical element.

If required by the OPDIV/STAFFDIV Head, the supervisor will submit the rating to the reviewing official for concurrence. The supervisor will conduct a performance discussion with the employee. The supervisor and employee should sign and date Part I.C. The employee will be provided with a copy of the complete final rating of record. If the employee refuses to sign, the supervisor should annotate the form, “Employee declined to sign. Rating discussed and copy provided on [date].”

A copy will be provided to the employee and the original forwarded to the designated individual within the OPDIV/STAFFDIV.

At approximately midpoint in the appraisal cycle, supervisors will conduct at least one progress review. While only one progress review is required, additional reviews are encouraged to maximize employee feedback. If performance on any element is less than Achieved Expected Results, the supervisor must provide written documentation. The supervisor and the employee should sign and date Part I.B. after a progress review is conducted. If the employee refuses to sign, the supervisor should annotate the form, "Employee declined to sign. Progress review conducted on [date]."

Performance Appraisal

The supervisor will assign a rating to each critical element (Administrative Requirements and the individual critical elements under the Individual Performance Outcomes). The rating level definitions will be assigned a numerical score in the chart below.

V. DHHS PERFORMANCE PLAN INSTRUCTIONS

Performance Plan

All elements of the performance plan are critical and must support the HHS Strategic Plan.

All employees will be rated on the Administrative Requirements critical element (Part II.A. of the plan). The supervisor, along with input from the employee will develop and establish specific outcomes to support Agency strategic initiatives. These will be included as critical elements in the Individual Performance Outcomes section (Part II.B. of the plan).

The performance plan should be signed and dated by the supervisor and the employee in Part I.A. prior to implementation.

Progress Review

At approximately midpoint in the appraisal cycle, supervisors will conduct at least one progress review. While only one progress review is required, additional reviews are encouraged to maximize employee feedback. If performance on any element is less than Achieved Expected Results, the supervisor must provide written documentation. The supervisor and the employee should sign and date Part I.B. after a progress review is conducted. If the employee refuses to sign, the supervisor should annotate the form, "Employee declined to sign. Progress review conducted on [date]."

Performance Appraisal

The supervisor will assign a rating to each critical element (Administrative Requirements and the individual critical elements under the Individual Performance Outcomes). The rating level definitions will be assigned a numerical score in the chart below.

After rating and assigning a score to each critical element: the rating official will total the points and divide that by the number critical elements to arrive at an average score (up to one decimal place). This score will be converted to a summary rating based on the following point values:

Critical Element Ratings	Points Assigned
Level 5: Achieved Outstanding Results (AO)	4.50 to 5.00
Level 4: Achieved More than Expected Results (AM)	3.60 to 4.49
Level 3: Achieved Expected Results (AE)	3.00 to 3.59
Level 2: Partially Achieved Expected Results (PA)	2.00 to 2.99
Level 1: Achieved Unsatisfactory Results (UR)	1.00 to 1.99

Exceptions to the mathematical formula:

If an employee receives Partially Achieved Expected Results (PA) on one or more critical elements regardless of the average point score, he/she cannot receive a summary rating higher than Achieved Expected Results (AE). A summary rating of Achieved Unsatisfactory Results (UR) must be assigned to any employee who is rated Achieved Unsatisfactory Results (UR) on any critical element.

If required by the OPDIV/STAFFDIV Head, the supervisor will submit the rating to the reviewing official for concurrence. The supervisor will conduct a performance discussion with the employee. The supervisor and employee should sign and date Part I.C. The employee will be provided with a copy of the complete final rating of record. If the employee refuses to sign, the supervisor should annotate the form, “Employee declined to sign. Rating discussed and copy provided on [date].”

A copy will be provided to the employee and the original forwarded to the designated individual within the OPDIV/STAFFDIV.
