Re: Notice of Detail

Mr. Turnage,

This letter is notification of my decision to detail you from your position as a GS-0610-12 Supervisory Clinical Nurse at Phoenix Indian Medical Center to the GS-0610-12 Policy Officer at Phoenix Indian Medical Center, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 300.301. This temporary duty (TDY) is effective April 3, 2023 and is for 120 days. This TDY may be extended or canceled at any time. This detail is necessary for the efficiency of the service unit, will support the mission of the Agency, and will not impact your position of record or your compensation.

During your detail you will report to the Endreya McCabe, Director of Quality and Performance Improvement. Please report to Ms. McCabe and Mr. Clinton Pope, PIMC Chief Quality Officer, on Monday, April 3 at 0800. The Director of Quality and Performance Improvement will serve as your supervisor for the duration of the detail and will determine your tour, duties, and assignments.

The Agency recognizes that you possess knowledge and skills in the area of Policy Review and Contracting Officer Representative (COR) certification. While the TDY is in effect, you will provide support to programs under the direction of the Director of Quality and Performance Improvement and Chief Quality Officer. Your duties during the detail will include, but will not be limited to reviewing and updating PIMC Policies within the Policy Stat software program, COR responsibilities, and continuous survey readiness support.

You are expected to comply with all directives from the Director of Quality and Performance Improvement during the TDY. If you have questions related to this detail, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

_____
Debra Ward Lund, RN-BC, MSN
Chief Executive Officer (acting)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT

I, Kevin Turnage, hereby acknowledge receipt of this Notice of Detail.
